

HOEFFERT TRAVEL AWARD

The Department of Physiology offers travel awards to support Molecular, Cellular and Integrative Physiology (MCIP) graduate students training.

Due Dates:

December 10 2020

March 10 2021

May 10 2021

Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

Eligibility:

1. MCIP Graduate students.
2. Students of all levels pre or post comp are eligible to apply.

Funding: $300, 5 awards available

Submission Guidelines:

Send the abstract, the name of the meeting, a max three sentences explanation as to why this is meeting important to you and your CV (4 page maximum). Abstract needs to have been submitted but acceptance of abstract can be pending. Students should be first author on the abstract and should present either a poster or a talk.

All material must be submitted as a SINGLE PDF to Mrs. Jasmine Jackson E-mail: jjack578@msu.edu

Review Criteria:

Awards will only be given to accepted abstract. The graduate program director and the GAC members will review and select the award winners based on scientific merit of the abstract.

The committee's goal is to award every student at least one travel fellowship during their thesis work but this will depend on funding for fellowships and amounts of submissions by students.
